

ABSTRACT

A system including an anti-jackknifing assembly (Figure 2A) with a remote control on/off switch (Figure 5) and hydraulic cylinder (Figure 4) provides system control to a tractor (Figure 1) and a trailer (Figure 2).

The system can be controlled by the driver to allow the moving vehicle to be adjusted to various road conditions in an act to prevent jackknifing.